The Great Book of Laws of the Kingdom of Atlantia

1 Atlantian Great Book of Laws

1.1 Compilation of Kingdom Law

The Atlantian Great Book of Laws, the compilation of Kingdom Law, contains all the current laws of the Kingdom of Atlantia. Only those laws listed here or enacted hereafter in the manner described below are in effect in the Kingdom of Atlantia. Any Corpora references cited in the Atlantian Great Book of Laws are based on the version of Corpora published June 11, 2009.

1.2 Requirements for Publication and Effect of Kingdom Law

In accordance with Corpora IV F, laws must be proclaimed in order to take effect. Laws must be submitted for publishing as a newsletter addendum on the Kingdom Web site, at or before the Crown's last court to be valid. The law changes will not be published without electronic approval from the Crown. Law changes will take effect on the first day of the month listed on the Acorn cover in which the changes are published.

1.3 Updating of the Atlantian Great Book of Law

The Atlantian Great Book of Law must be updated on the Kingdom web site within fourteen (14) days of notification of the new law in the Kingdom Newsletter and/or the publication of a Kingdom Newsletter's electronic supplement. The authoritative version of Kingdom Law shall be maintained by the Clerk of Law and the Kingdom Seneschal's Office in PDF format.

1.4 Kingdom Legal Committee

The Kingdom Legal Committee shall consist of three members:

- One of whom is the Clerk of Law, the committee chair, in accordance with section 5.14.3.
- One appointed by the Kingdom Seneschal.
- One appointed by the Crown. The member appointed by the Crown must be a member of a Peerage

1.4.1 The Kingdom Legal Committee shall convene at least twice a year to review any changes to Corpora, Society Policy, Kingdom Law and Kingdom Policy to identify and review any possible conflicts. As a minimum, the committee shall meet in the 60 days prior to each Coronation.

1.4.2 The Kingdom Legal Committee shall provide recommendations for changes to Kingdom Law or Policy at least 30 days prior to Coronation to the Kingdom Seneschal, the Crown, and any Great Officer whose policies are affected.

1.4.3 The initial term of office is hereby defined as three (3) years. Other than the Clerk of Law, whose tenure is defined by section 5.5, subsequent renewal terms for other Legal Committee members are two (2) years. Members who wish to serve an additional term may request it. The request must be approved by the Kingdom Seneschal, the Crown, and the other Committee members.

1.4.4 Any member of the Kingdom Legal Committee may be removed with the consent of the Kingdom Seneschal and the Crown.

2 The Crown

2.1 Duties and Powers of the Crown

In addition to the duties and powers set forth in Corpora IV C – G, the Crown shall:

- Consult with the populace of the Kingdom, the Their landed Barons and Baronesses, Their Great Officers of State and Their Officers of State, on matters which the Crown deems necessary.
- Ensure the succession of the Crown
- Ensure the Continuity of Reigns
- Enact, change and repeal laws after consultation with the Curia
- Negotiate and enact treaties with other Kingdoms
- Document all pollings, both written and verbal, for all Polling Orders for pollings conducted during Their reign
- Maintain a complete record of all awards given during Their reign
- Ensure the proper transfer of Royal Records
- Remain a resident of the Kingdom of Atlantia throughout the completion of their reign.
- Accept custody of royal regalia and property placed in their care by the Kingdom Chamberlain by signed receipt of a completed inventory. Should the Kingdom Chamberlain not be present the incoming and outgoing Crowns shall execute a face-to-face transfer of such that they have accompanied by a hand written receipt. Copies of such receipt must be forwarded to the Kingdom Chamberlain and the Kingdom Exchequer no later than one week after the transfer.
- Maintain any regalia entrusted to the Crown. Notify the Kingdom Chamberlain immediately if regalia is lost and/or damaged in any way.

2.2 Ensuring the Succession of the Crown

In accordance with Corpora IV C 2, the Crown shall hold a Crown Tournament to choose their successors.

- Crown Tournament shall be a double elimination tournament.
- Once the Crown Tournament list is drawn and set into the list tree, the Crown, the Marshal In Charge of Crown Tournament and the Minister of the List in charge of Crown Tournament shall sign off on the list. Once the list is signed, no changes may be made to it unless all of the above listed signatories agree to and sign off on the changes.
- The victor of the Crown Lists and his or her consort shall together assume the position of successors to the Crown and the titles of Crown Prince and Crown Princess as appropriate to their gender.

2.2.1 Eligibility for Crown Tournament

In addition to the requirements set forth in Corpora IVA2 & IVB, all combatants and their consorts in the Crown Tournament must:

- Be presented to and acceptable to the Crown
- Be willing and able to fulfill the duties of the Crown
- Intend to make an honorable attempt to compete for the Crown
- Be subjects of the Kingdom of Atlantia
- Have resided in Atlantia for at least one year immediately prior to the Crown Tourney*
- Submit a Letter of Intent to fight in Crown Tourney to the Crown by the due date set. The Letter of Intent shall include all required information*
- Have arms registered with the College of Heraldry or present proof of heraldic submission through a warranted herald prior to Crown Tournament*

* These requirements may be waived at the discretion of the Crown.

2.2.2 Crown Letter of Intent Requirements

A combatant and their consort's Letter(s) of Intent must contain:

- Their modern and SCA names along with their address(es), email address(es) and phone number(s)
- Membership information (membership numbers and expiration dates)
- Any additional information requested by the Crown

2.2.3 Withdrawal from and Victory in Crown Tournament

Either the combatant or their consort may withdraw at any point in the tournament, without loss of honor, by notifying the Crown or the Minister of the Crown Lists.

If either the combatant or their consort choose to withdraw during the tournament, they are both eliminated.

2.2.4 Exclusion of Other Offices and Appointments for the Crown

The victor of the Crown Lists and their consort shall vacate any other offices or appointments held at the time of assumption of the titles of King or Queen.

The Crown Prince and Princess may use the time between Crown Tourney and Coronation to divest themselves of any other office or appointment

2.3 Ensuring the Continuity of Reigns

2.3.1 In the case that either the Crown Prince or the Crown Princess is unable to assume the throne, the remaining Heir shall assume the duties of both through their Coronation and until the Coronation of their successors.

2.3.2 In the case that neither the Crown Prince nor the Crown Princess is able to assume the throne, a new Crown Tournament shall be held at the first possible event to ensure the succession.

2.3.3 In the case of the inability of either the Sovereign or the Consort to complete the reign, the remaining Monarch shall assume the duties of both until the Coronation of Their successors.

2.3.4 In the case that neither the Sovereign nor Consort is able to complete the reign:

- If the Heirs have been chosen, They shall be crowned at the first possible event.
- If the Heirs have not yet been chosen:
 - The Kingdom Seneschal shall ensure that a Crown Tournament is held at the first possible event.
 - The victors shall be invested as Sovereign and Consort immediately upon the conclusion of the Tournament.
- In the interim between the abdication of the Monarchs and the crowning of the new Monarchs, the Kingdom Seneschal's duties and powers shall include:
 - Holding in trust the regalia and records of the monarchy for the future Crown.
 - Conducting such correspondence in the name of the Crown as is deemed necessary for the function of the Kingdom and to ensure continuity for the future Crown.

2.4 Enacting, Changing, and Repealing Law

2.4.1 The Crowns shall enact, or repeal Kingdom Law only after consultation with Curia Regis.

2.4.2 The Crown may change law without consulting Curia Regis to fix grammatical mistakes, numbering errors, duplication, and style inconsistencies that do not change the content and intent of the law.

2.4.3 The Crown's word is law, in accordance with Corpora I A, where modern law, Corpora, Society policy and Kingdom law are silent.

2.5 Treaty Specifications

The Kingdom of Atlantian may take part in treaties with other Kingdoms of the SCA, Inc.

- Treaties shall be negotiated by the Crown or their designated representatives.
- Treaties shall be ratified by being presented to Curia Regis, agreed to by the Crown Prince and Princess, and published as a newsletter supplement. A treaty cannot be ratified until the Crown Prince and Princess have been chosen.
- Treaties shall be changed by the same process as ratification.
- All treaties in effect for the Kingdom of Atlantia shall be published in the Atlantian Great Book of Law.

8.11 Pollings for Peerage Orders and Kingdom Orders of High Merit

Peerage Orders and Kingdom Orders of High Merit may be given by the Crown after a written or verbal polling of the members of the Order regarding the qualifications of a candidate.

- Each polling shall be considered valid for one (1) year from the date the polling ends.
- All Verbal pollings must take place at an Order meeting at an event that has appeared on the Kingdom Calendar.
- A verbal polling is only open for the duration of the Order meeting in which the polling is conducted.
- Order members must be present at the meeting in which the verbal polling is conducted to be included in the verbal polling. Verbal pollings may not be conducted by proxy.

8.12 Written Polling Record Requirements

All written pollings shall include:

- Name of the Order
- Definition of the Order per Kingdom Law
- List of candidates, including the following for each candidate: society name, modern name, home branch, and the discipline (if applicable) for which they are being polled
- Respondents Society name
- Respondents modern name
- Respondents home branch
- Valid responses are:
 - Yes – including commentary supporting why the Candidate should be inducted to the Order.
 - No – including commentary supporting why the Candidate should not be inducted to the Order.
 - Abstain – Which implies the Respondent has no strong view of the Candidate and fully supports the Order's general view. This response shall be counted neither as for nor against this Candidate. Equivalent of "I do not know enough about this Candidate to comment. However I support this Order and the Kingdom enough to respond to the polling in general."

8.13 Verbal Polling Record Requirements

All Verbal Pollings must be documented. A minimum of 15 members of the applicable Order must be in attendance for a verbal polling to be considered valid. If the Order does not have 15 members to satisfy the minimum number requirement, then the Order must submit a written polling via the ESP system. This documentation shall be submitted via the Electronic System for Pollings so as to be maintained as part of the Royal Records. The document will then be entered into the ESP system by the Crown.

Documentation for Verbal Pollings shall include:

- Name of the Order
- Location and date of polling
- List of candidate(s) being polled, including the following for each candidate: society name, modern name, and the discipline (if applicable) for which they are being polled

- Where possible the Watch List should then automatically post these additions to the Order's email list

9 Rights and Duties of Atlantian Subjects

Every subject of Atlantia has the following rights and duties:

- The right to be heard by their Crown
- The right to avail themselves of the Complaint process as outlined in Society policy, Kingdom law and Kingdom policy
- The right to recommend other subjects for an Award or Order

- The duty to be familiar with the rules of the Society, Kingdom Law and Policy
- The duty to never knowingly allow the Crown to break Kingdom Law or Corpora and when advising shall do so in a manner as not to embarrass the Crown, the Kingdom, or its subjects

10 Reservations and Restrictions

10.1 Use of Non-Period Items

10.1.1 Obviously non-period items such as soda cans, modern chairs and coolers, shall be covered or disguised.

10.1.2 Smoking is forbidden in the central area of a Society event.

- The central area of an event is defined as any area where people must be present in order to participate in the event, such as the hall where a feast is taking place, or the lists and the area surrounding them during a tournament.
- Smoking is permitted in the interior of a pavilion only with the express permission of the owner of the pavilion.

10.1.3 The use of flash bulbs is forbidden in the central area of a Society event.

- The autocrat, the Crown (if present), and the Territorial Baronage (if present), should be consulted before any photography using flash bulbs takes place.
- Photography with flash bulbs is permitted in the interior of a pavilion only with the owner's permission, and only if this use of a flash bulb will not disturb anyone in the main area of an event.

10.2 Clothing Restrictions

With the exception of Corpora II B requiring a pre-17th century style, there are no restrictions concerning clothing in the Kingdom of Atlantia.

10.3 Appearance on the List Field

All equipment or clothing used by participants on the list field must either have a pre-17th Century appearance or be covered in a manner to present such an appearance.

- The purpose of this law is not to exclude participants from the list, but to encourage the historical appearance of events. These rules shall be applied with discretion and good judgment to encourage rather than to discourage.
- Participants who are residents of another kingdom are considered our guests and are exempt from this ruling provided they meet Society minimum standards.
- Newly transplanted subjects of Atlantia are to be granted a four month period of time to come into compliance with these laws.

10.4 Assumption of Titles and Rank

The assumption of titles of rank equivalent to the reserved titles is forbidden. Those claiming ecclesiastical offices may not claim any territorial jurisdiction.

11 Minors

11.1 Definition of Minors

In accordance with Society Seneschal’s Handbook IV A, minors will be defined as persons who have not achieved the age of legal majority in the state, province, or country in which the event (function) is held. Adults are defined as persons who have achieved the age of legal majority in the state, province, or country in which the event is held.

11.2 Minor Attendance Without Parent, Legal Guardian, or Non-Guardian

Minors may not enter (or remain at) an event without an adult who is designated as being responsible for them (parent, legal guardian or non-guardian).

11.3 Society Standards for Youth

As defined in the Society Seneschal’s Handbook, Appendix A 1 & 2, minimum standards for youth shall be followed unless additional rules are specified in Kingdom law or additional policies.

11.4 Minor Waivers

Minors attending an event with their parent or legal guardian must present at check in a signed minor waiver or a signed blue card.

11.5 Minor Waivers for Non-Guardians

Minors attending an event with a non-guardian must present at check in a signed guardian waiver (“designated adult in charge waiver”) and a notarized medical authorization form signed by the minor’s parent or legal guardian. These waivers/forms are available through the Chancellor of Youth Activities office via the-Kingdom web site.

12 Subsidiary Branches

A branch will be granted incipient status and be listed in the Kingdom Regnum when it has submitted a satisfactory New Branch Application to the Kingdom Seneschal’s Office, and the Kingdom Seneschal has been satisfied that a legitimate attempt is being made to organize a new branch.

- An attempt to organize a new branch within territory granted to an existing branch must be approved by any affected Seneschals.

12.1 New Branch Membership Requirements

A new branch must have at least the following number of paid members in order to submit a New Branch Application:

- Principality – Mandated by Corpora III D
- Barony or Province – 200
- Shire – 30
- Canton or Riding – 20

- College, Stronghold or Port - 5

12.2 Advancement of Branch Status

A branch will advance from incipient to full status, and have its officers ratified by their superiors, after filing a petition with the Kingdom Seneschal and satisfying any other requirements as specified by the Kingdom Seneschal.

- Advancement to Barony status shall follow procedures set forth in Corpora III D.

12.3 Branch Officer Requirements

- Branch officers must be member of the SCA, Inc., and have access to the Atlantian newsletter.
- To maintain full status, a Barony must maintain the set of officers required in the Society Seneschal's Handbook VII B 4.
- To maintain full status, a Canton or Shire must maintain the set of officers required in Corpora III C 6.
- A branch that has no marshal can only hold fighting events with the sponsorship of a warranted Atlantian marshal who will accept responsibility for the fighting at the event.
- A branch that has no warranted Minister of the List (MOL) can only hold fighting events with the sponsorship of a warranted MOL who will accept responsibility for the MOL duties at the event.

12.4 Branch Status Changes

A branch may petition the Kingdom Seneschal and the Crown to change its status, for example from Canton to Shire. When the petitioning branch is subsidiary to another branch, the Seneschal and Baron/Baroness (if any) for that latter branch must be consulted.

- A branch which has ceased to meet the requirements for its status may be declared extinct or be degraded to a lower status, by recommendation from the Kingdom Seneschal and the Crown to the Board of Directors.

13 Grievances

This procedure applies only to internal SCA grievances. Any violation of modern law shall be reported to the appropriate modern authorities.

13.1 Complaint Procedure

13.1.1 All members shall follow the Channels for Complaint and Appeal per Corpora, as detailed in Section X(B)(2) Procedures subsections (a) through (c). All complaints are to be promptly forwarded to the Crowns and Kingdom Seneschal.

13.1.2 If the procedures detailed in Corpora X(B)(2) Procedures subsections (a) through (c) do not reach an adequate resolution to the grievance, the following procedures may be invoked by any of the aggrieved parties. The Channels need not be invoked for disputes of a monetary nature, incompetence in office, or violations of the Rules of the Lists.

13.1.3 Complaints are registered when presented by mail or email to the Crown, Baronage, or an officer of the seneschalate. Complaints should follow these guidelines:

- Complaints must include SCA and legal name and the date(s) of the incident(s)
- Complaints must be registered by an individual directly involved in or witness to the incident(s)
- Complaints should include, at minimum, a complete description of the incident(s) and a list of any witnesses and their role in the incident(s)
- Complaints should provide detail to compliance with the Channels for Complaint and Appeal per Corpora, as detailed in the Procedure section of Appendix A.

All complaints are to be promptly forwarded to the Crowns and Kingdom Seneschal.

13.1.4 Upon review of a complaint, the Crown may:

- Reject the complaint as inappropriate, have it removed from the Crown's and Seneschal's files, and inform the complainant of same giving the reasoning behind the decision.
- Keep the complaint on file with the Kingdom Seneschal, without action, pending other complaints of a similar nature, and inform the complainant of same.
- Inform in writing the person(s) accused of the complaint, provide them a copy of the complaint and the next actions to be taken. At the discretion of the Crowns, a Board of Inquiry may be appointed.
- Begin the proceedings for a further Court as appropriate, and inform the complainant of same.
- Refer the complaint to the Kingdom Seneschal and inform the complainant of same.

13.1.5 The complainant may withdraw his or her complaint at any point at the Crown's discretion.

13.1.6 Complaints resulting from a single incident must be registered within 60 days of the incident. Complaints resulting from a series of incidents must be filed within 60 days from the last cited incident. All cited incidents must have taken place within a reasonable period of time.

13.2 Board of Inquiry

A Board of Inquiry is appointed at the Crown's discretion to recommend further action on such issues as the Crown may refer to the Board. Its aim is to discover the basis of the dispute, prepare a list of pertinent witnesses and evidence, and make recommendations to the Crown for further actions. The Board of Inquiry may be as informal as desired by the Crown. Boards of Inquiry may not find against individuals, rather their inquiries shall be of a problem-identification nature. All deliberations of a Board of Inquiry shall be held confidential except that, in the event that a further Court is recommended, the findings and records of the Board of Inquiry shall be forwarded to the further Court. The Board of Inquiry shall:

13.2.1 Consist of members chosen by the Crown at the Crown's discretion, excluding the Crown. One member shall be named the Senior Member.

13.2.2 Within 30 days of being named by the Crown, act in the following manner:

- Review the complaint referred to it by the Crown.
- Investigate the matter including but not limited to contacting those involved as listed in the complaint.
- Determine if the nature of the complaint made warrants the convening of further Courts.
- Within 15 days following the close of the inquiry, the Senior Member must prepare and submit to the Crown a written recommendation to convene a further Court or to dismiss the complaint. This recommendation shall be signed by all members of the Board of Inquiry. The recommendation need not be unanimous, but in the case of multiple opinions, each member must acknowledge and sign his/her own recommendation.
- The Crown may choose to accept all, some, or none of the recommendations of the Board of Inquiry. If the decision of the Crown differs from the recommendation, the Crown shall attach an explanation of their decision to the recommendation.

13.2.3 The Crown must send copies of all documentation and a final report to the Kingdom Seneschal to be placed in the Kingdom record.

13.3 Court of Chivalry

13.3.1 A Court of Chivalry may be called against anyone for matters concerning: Kingdom law, heraldic law, the rules of the lists, chivalric matters, perjury, or any other matters referred to it by the Crown. In no case is the Crown compelled to call a Court of Chivalry based on the recommendation of a Board of Inquiry.

13.3.2 No matters disputed under modern law may be referred to or be considered by a Court of Chivalry.

13.3.3 The Court of Chivalry shall be empowered, if the matters before it are sufficiently grave, to request the intervention of the Board of Directors of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc., concerning these matters.

13.3.4 Upon the decision to convene a Court of Chivalry the Crown must appoint an Agent of the Crown within 10 days, and provide a complete copy of any files to the Agent. The Agent shall take the following actions upon appointment:

- Send by registered mail, return receipt requested, a copy of the complaint, any prior recommendations, and other pertinent material to the accused.
- Request from the accused a decision on whether the accused will waive defense, defend him/herself, or be represented by a representative of his/her choice. A representative named to handle defense must have agreed to do so.
- Refusal of the accused to respond will be interpreted as willingness to accept the findings of the Court without personal clarification.

- Members of the Court

Prepare a list of 5 people who agree to serve as members of the Court of Chivalry and 1 additional person as alternate, and present this list to the Crown and the accused. If possible, the list shall include at least one member of each of the Peerage orders and at least one Peer from the vicinity of the accused's home branch. The accused shall be given an opportunity to review the list and may reject any 1 member of the Court for stated cause.

- Location

Select a date and location (after consultation with the Crown) for the Court of Chivalry, which shall be within 30 days of selection of the Agent. Courts of Chivalry may not be convened until all parties to the dispute, all members of the Court, and the Board of Directors, have been notified of the upcoming Court of Chivalry and its cause.

- The place shall be in the region of the residence of the accused.
- The Agent shall send, by registered mail, return receipt requested, notification of the date and location for the Court to all parties to the dispute, members of the Court, and the Defense Counsel.
- The Agent shall make arrangements conducive to order and comfort for the conduct of the Court.

13.3.5 Prosecutor

The Crown shall select a prosecutor prior to the Court.

13.3.6 The Court of Chivalry shall convene on the date at the location chosen. The Court shall follow these procedures:

- Prior to convening, the Crown shall select one from among them to serve as senior member of the Court. The senior member shall chair the proceedings and maintain order.
- The Agent shall identify the various participants in the Court, read the accusations, and then turn over the proceedings to the senior member of the Court.
- The Court will provide the accused the opportunity to admit, deny, or explain their actions.
- The Court shall conduct itself in such a manner as to assure that all concerned parties and all pertinent materials are heard and given due consideration. The Court shall take special care to hear those statements that the accused wishes to make in his/her own defense, but does not require the accused to speak.

- Following the presentation of evidence and testimony and any arguments which the prosecution or defense choose to present, the members of the Court shall retire to a private setting for consideration and the Court shall be recessed.
- Consideration of the members of the Court shall take place as follows:
 - The members of the Court shall determine the validity of any accusations. This shall be done by discussion, followed by a vote of the members in which a majority shall determine the outcome.
 - If the finding is that the accusations are valid, the members of the Court shall then determine what sanctions, if any, they shall recommend that the Crown impose.
 - Following consideration and decision, the senior member of the Court shall reconvene the proceedings of the Court and announce the findings and recommendations of the Court.

13.3.7 The Court shall then be dismissed.

13.3.8 Within 10 days of the Court of Chivalry, the Agent shall present to the Crown the records, findings, and recommendations of the Court. The Crown may extend this time as they deem appropriate. At that time, the Agent shall be dismissed.

13.3.9 The Crown shall, within 10 days of the receipt of the Agent's report, inform, in writing, the accused of Their decision.

13.3.10 The Crown shall send copies of all documentation and any final report to the Kingdom Seneschal to be placed in the permanent Kingdom record.

13.3.11 A Court of Chivalry may be dissolved at any time by the Crown. The Crown may dismiss or act upon the accusations that brought about the Court of Chivalry at any time during the proceedings. When the Crown has declared a Kingdom investigation complete and the decision final, no Officer may reopen the investigation save at the direction of the Board of Directors of the Society or at the direction of their Society Officer. Courts are Society functions and are to be held at Society events within the Kingdom.

13.4 Court of Courtesy

13.4.1 As an assurance of Courteous Behavior.

A Court of Courtesy may be called by the Queen*, at Her own discretion, either upon Her own initiative, or in response to the petition of any subject(s). Courts of Courtesy are to assure courteous behavior among the subjects of Atlantia, and may not be called for disputes of monetary matters, incompetence, or violations of the Rules of the Lists.

13.4.2 Formats for the Court.

As each individual case demands individual treatment, the format for these Courts is flexible. Two possible formats are a hearing before a council of the Queen's choosing or a hearing before the Queen alone.

13.4.3 Her Majesty's Discretion.

All other details of the Court of Courtesy are up to the discretion of the Queen, except that the Queen shall in all cases appoint a recorder of the Court to take down what transpires. Formal Courts of Justice are reserved for Courts of Chivalry.

13.4.4 Effects of the Decision.

The decision of the Queen is final and cannot be appealed, nor can the same case be brought before a succeeding Queen. The decision must be in accordance with Kingdom Law, Corpora, and civil law.

13.4.5 Sanctions.

Actions following a Court of Courtesy may not be required, but should the Queen choose to use them, the following sanctions are available to her:

- A private reprimand issued by the Queen.
- A public reprimand issued in Court and printed in the Kingdom newsletter.
- Requiring an apology or other act of atonement.
- Referral of the matter to a Board of Inquiry or different Court.

* {NOTE: For Queen, read Consort when applicable}

13.5 Other Courts

The Crown may establish and call such courts as may be necessary for the governance of the realm.

13.6 Sanctions

Sanction include, but are not limited to:

13.6.1 Probation, which is a period of fixed duration, during which an individual is to be observed. At the end of probation, the individual's conduct is to be reviewed.

- When probation is imposed, the Crown shall immediately appoint a panel to observe the conduct of the individual. The makeup of this panel is left to the discretion of the Crown.
- At the end of the probation period, the panel shall meet to discuss their observation of the accused's conduct, and to make a recommendation, in writing, to the Crown to lift the probation, or to continue the probation for a further fixed period of time, or to impose such other sanctions as listed in the laws as may be appropriate. If the probation is extended, the panel shall reconvene at the end of the extended probation period and review the accused's conduct during the extended probationary period.

13.6.2 Banishment. See Corpora for the types of banishment and the regulations regarding them.

13.6.3 Degradation from the Peerage. This is a sanction that may be brought only as a recommendation to the Board of Directors.

13.6.4 Temporary or permanent proscription from the lists.

13.6.5 Temporary or permanent proscription from any specified activities within the Kingdom.

13.6.6 A private reprimand to be delivered by the Queen.

13.6.7 A public reprimand to be delivered by the Crown in the Kingdom newsletter.

13.6.8 Removal from any or all Kingdom orders. Removal of Arms is at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

13.6.9 Removal from any or all offices held in the Kingdom of Atlantia (in conjunction with the corresponding Society officer as appropriate).

13.6.10 Requiring specific acts of recompense or atonement.

13.7 Appeal

Either side may appeal to the Crown the recommendation of a Court of Chivalry within 10 days of receipt of that written recommendation. The Crown will issue Their decision on any appeal not more than 30 days after the appeal is requested. Any appeals of the decision of the Crown must be made to the Board of Directors.

Appendix D - Treaties

D.1 Treaty of the White Scarf

"We, the Crowns of the Kingdoms of Ansteorra, the Outlands, Trimaris, Atenveldt, and An Tir do by these letters publish and proclaim our intent to create an order in our Kingdoms to be known as the Order of the White Scarf. We do mutually recognize that this order shall be chartered in our Kingdoms as custom allows."

"Further, We, the Crowns of the Kingdom of Atlantia do enter into this treaty, in accordance with our laws and customs."

"We pledge to honor the styles and precedence as shall be established by charter and to allow and encourage those of our Royal Cousins who may wish to establish this order in their own Kingdoms. By this document we command our heralds to present the title and badges of this order to the College of Arms, that it may be registered to the titularies of our Kingdoms."

[Signed by the Crowns of Ansteorra, the Outlands, Trimaris, Atenveldt, An Tir, and Atlantia]
Signed by all parties as of April 20, 1996.

D.2 Treaty of the Golden Lance

We, the kingdoms signatory to this treaty, desire to offer deserved and due recognition to those in Our respective kingdoms who have demonstrated exceptional expertise in the arts of equestrian activities and who have, through service to the equestrian community, advanced those arts and promoted them; and

We desire to promote the equestrian arts within Our separate realms, and to other realms, by this recognition of exemplar individuals; and

We desire to establish in, between, and throughout Our realms a singular order to accomplish this recognition, such that all who hold membership in this order will be recognized equally for their skills and service to the equestrian arts among and within all kingdoms signatory to this treaty; and

We desire to register this order name and similar badges for each kingdom signatory to this treaty with the College of Arms.

Article the First ~

We do each therefore establish, create, and recognize within Our separate realms, according to Our kingdom law and the Laws of Arms, the Order of the Golden Lance. Further, We each declare that a member of this order inducted in any other kingdom signatory to this treaty shall be welcomed in all of Our realms and accorded the rights and precedence granted to Our own kingdom's members of this order. We do not, save only by the terms of other treaties in force if any are applicable, grant to any other kingdom the right to confer membership in this order upon one of Our populace without prior consultation with Us or Our successor Kings and Queens.

Article the Second ~

We do each grant to each and every other kingdom signatory to this treaty permission to conflict with our respective name and badge registrations for this Order of the Golden Lance for purposes of each kingdom's registration of the order with the College of Arms. We do each recognize that such permission granted cannot be revoked once registrations are completed. This treaty text shall be included with each registration of name or badge to the College of Arms and shall constitute documentation of such permission to conflict as the College may require.

Article the Third ~

We each mutually recognize that the name of this order registered to each signatory kingdom will add the kingdom name to the end of the phrase: "Order of the Golden Lance of".

Article the Fourth ~

We each mutually recognize that the badge registration by each signatory kingdom for this order will include the charge of “a lance Or” as either a primary charge or as an overall charge, all other badge components to be determined by each signatory kingdom. We each further mutually declare that members of this order are at any time entitled to wear either the badge of this order of the kingdom in which they were made members or the badge of the order of the kingdom in which they currently reside.

Article the Fifth ~

We do each direct and charge, through enactment of this treaty, Our respective Colleges of Heraldry to speedily register the order name and badge for Our respective kingdoms with the College of Arms.

Article the Sixth ~

We, the kingdoms signatory to this treaty, do further declare Our intent to encourage other realms in the pursuit of the equestrian arts and to welcome such kingdoms who pursue these ideals to join this treaty as they may desire.

By Our Hands, duly witnessed by Our Principal Heraldry, do We enact these articles and make their terms binding as law in Our respective kingdoms in accordance with the procedures and laws of Our kingdoms.

[Signed by the Crowns of Ansteorra, Trimaris, Caid and Atlantia]

Signed by all parties as of September 24, 2011

D.3 Treat of the Yew Bow

We, the kingdom signatory, to reciprocate acknowledgement given to the Yew Bow by orders of other Kingdoms, desire to offer deserved and due recognition to those in respective kingdoms who, like our order of the Yew Bow, have demonstrated exceptional expertise in one or more of the following areas: Target Archery, Combat Archery, Missile Combat, Thrown Weapons, Siege Weapons, or Equestrian Archery.

Further, we consider that an Equivalent Order is one from another Kingdom that: Requires exceptional skill and chivalry in one or more of the following areas: Target Archery, Combat Archery, Missile Combat, Thrown Weapons, Siege Weapons, or Equestrian Archery, and Requires service to their Kingdom and its people, knowledge of the courtly graces, and obedience to the laws and ideals of their Kingdom and the Society, and Confers a Grant of Arms upon the recipient, or confers an Award of Arms and is a polling order.

A member of an Equivalent Order visiting Atlantia shall be considered equal in rank and honor to members of the Order of the Yew Bow, and shall be invited to attend meetings of the Order of the Yew Bow and share their knowledge and opinions at such meetings. Such visitors shall not be counted in a polling, and shall not be invited to join long-term groups such as the Atlantia Yew Bow email list.

A member of an Equivalent Order resident in Atlantia shall be invited to participate in all activities of the Order, including polling, as if they were members of the Order.

Society Orders currently recognized as Equivalent Orders are:

- i. Royal Missile Company in West Kingdom (GoA)
- ii. Order of Sagittarius in East Kingdom (AoA, polling)
- iii. Greenwood Company in Middle Kingdom (GoA)

Appendix E - Charter for the Kingdom Royal Notables

The Kingdom Royal Notables are selected for excellence in their field. They are expected to combine excellence of product or performance with a reasonable attempt at period materials and/or style.

E.1. Duties and Responsibilities of Kingdom Royal Notables

The Kingdom Royal Notables are expected to encourage the disciplines for which they are selected.

Suggested goals and duties are:

- Services in their discipline for the Crown
- Sponsoring at least two competitions in their field during their tenure
- Working with Branch Officers to encourage the growth of their discipline
- Teaching in such venues as are available and reasonable

E.2. Kingdom Royal Notables

E.2.1. The Royal Bard for excellence in the individual performance of any of the following fields: Singing, Instrumental music, Poetic rendition, Storytelling. The Royal Bard is encouraged to be proficient in at least two of these fields. One or two bards will serve at the same time, depending on the whim of the Crown.

E.2.2. The Royal Brewer for excellence in making beer, ale, mead, wine, or other period alcoholic beverages.

E.2.3. The Poeta Atlantia for excellence in composition of poetry in at least two period forms.

E.2.4. The Scrivener Royal for excellence in calligraphy and illumination, and acts as the personal scribe of the Crown. The Scrivener Royal shall serve a term of six months and the competition to choose a new Scrivener Royal shall be held at Coronation. The Scrivener Royal holds office under the Clerk of the Signet.

E.2.5. The Royal Baker for excellence in producing baked goods such as breads, cakes, pastries, and wafers. The baker shall be proficient in at least two period types of baking.

E.2.6. The Royal Archer for their excellence on the archery ranges. The Royal Archer is to be chosen each year by right of arms. The outgoing Royal Archer shall conduct, and not participate in, an archery shoot open to all at an event where archery is the focus of the day. The top eight scoring archers from Atlantia at that archery event, who so choose to compete for the title, shall compete in a single elimination tournament. At the discretion of the Crown, the winner of the tournament shall become the new Royal Archer.

E.3. Creation of a Kingdom Royal Notable

The Crown may choose to modify the list of Notables in consultation with the Great Officers of State to encourage any discipline they see fit.

E.4. Tenure of a Kingdom Royal Notable

The Kingdom Royal Notables are positions held in service to the Crown of Atlantia for the tenure of one year, except where noted otherwise.

E.5. Selection of a Kingdom Royal Notable

Kingdom Royal Notable competitions are held annually at Kingdom Level Events, unless the Crown sees need to do otherwise.

- Competitions shall be run by the current Kingdom Royal Notable, as a representative of the Crown, in consultation with the appropriate Great Officer of State.
- If the Kingdom Royal Notable is unable to run the competition for their successor, the Crown, in consultation with the appropriate Great Officer of State, shall designate a proxy to run the competition.
- Competitions should be announced on the Kingdom Announcements List and in the Kingdom newsletter's electronic supplement at least twice before the event where the competition takes place.
- The current Kingdom Royal Notable, in conjunction with the appropriate Great Officer of State, shall set the details of the competition and judging standards. Judges should be drawn from the following:
 - The Crown or their proxy
 - The Heirs or their proxy
 - The appropriate Great Officer of State or their proxy
 - The current Royal Notable
 - Additional judges may be chosen at the discretion of the Royal Notable
 - In no case should there be fewer than three judges.

E.6. Removal of a Kingdom Royal Notable

The Crown may remove a Kingdom Royal Notable at Their discretion. If the Kingdom Royal Notable is unable to complete his or her term or is removed early for any reason, the Crown shall direct the appropriate Great Officer of State to hold a competition at the next convenient Kingdom Level Event, or the Crown may choose a successor.
